

PROJECT-INTERPRET A DATA VISUALIZATION

INSIGHT 1(about the average of death in Mauritania)

In this map, it noted that Mauritania is not severely affected by the disease, was affected slightly compared to the severity of the regions because the separated the cases for each city and the darker city more affected.

It showed there are a death rate in Mauritania because the number of people who die every year from 2008-2014 was approximately 92 with a death rate of 0.25 every day.

Which countries are most affected?

INSIGHT 2(about the country average of death in Mauritania)

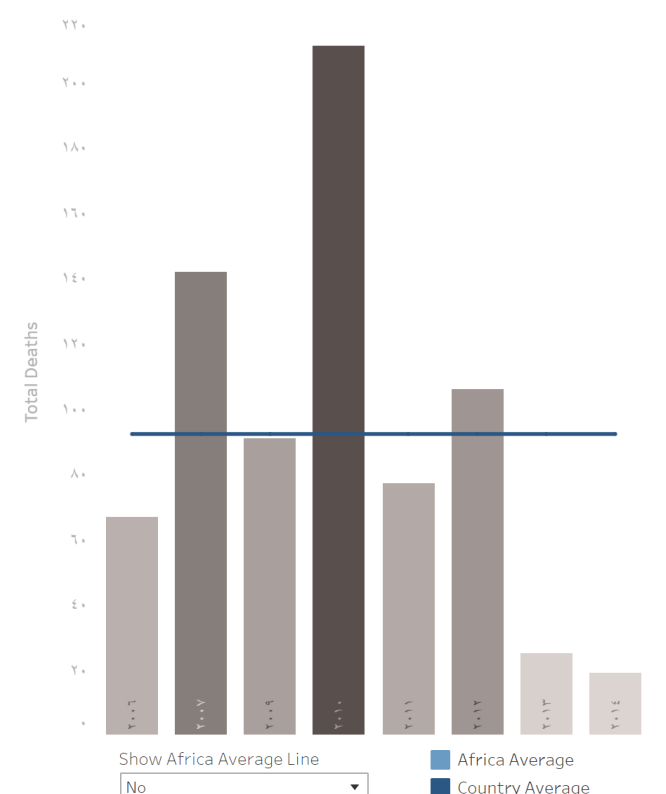

This bar chart depicts the average country released number of dead from 2006-2014

From the beginning of 2006, the number of deaths was approximately between 60-80 people this year, after which the number of death increased above the country average until the number of deaths became approximately 140 people, but in 2009 the number of deaths became less than the average and the number of deaths reached almost 100 people. As for the following year, the number of deaths jumped to the highest number until it reached more than 200 people.

In 2011 the number of dead people decreased to less than 80, and in 2012 it went up with the number of the dead until it reached about 150 people.

In 2014 and 2014 the numbers began to gradually decrease until the number of deaths in 2014 reached almost 20 people.

How have the number of malaria deaths changed over time in Mauritania?

INSIGHT 3(about the Africa average of death in Mauritania)

In this bar, a chart shows the number of deaths compared to the average number of dead in Africa

In 2006, the death toll was 200 people, in 2007 the death toll rose to an above-average of fewer than 200 people, about 150 people, in 2009 the number of deaths on .average was less than 200 people.

In 2010 the average death toll reached the highest number B, almost over 200 people.

In 2011 the number of deaths decreased until it reached below the average, and the next year the number increased until it reached above the average.

In 2013-2014, the number of deaths decreased to less than the average until it reached nearly 0.

How have the number of malaria deaths changed over time in Mauritania?

